Numb. 9228.

The London Gazette.

published by Authority.

From Tuesday December 26, to Saturday December 30, 1752.

Petersbourg, December 5.

LAST Sunday Night the Froſt ſet in ſo very ſevere, that all Navigation upon the River Neva is already ſtopt by the great Quantity of Ice which is now floating on it. We are aſſured that the Empreſs's Departure for Moſcow will take Place as ſoon as a ſufficient Quantity of Snow is fallen to make the Ways paſſable for Sledges, for which Purpoſe the Troops who are to eſcort her Imperial Majeſty in that Journey, have received Orders to hold themſelves in Readineſs to march upon the firſt Notice.

Modena, Dec. 11. The Treaty of Commerce, which has been for ſome Time negociating between his Sardinian Majeſty and the Duke our Sovereign, was concluded at Turin on the 24th paſt, and proves very advantagious to the Subjects of both Courts.

Hanover, Dec. 16. The Diſtemper amongſt the horned Cattle continuing to make great Havock in ſeveral Places in the Neighbourhood of this City, the Government is taking all poſſible Precautions to prevent its ſpreading farther into the Country.

Vienna, Dec. 16. We are aſſured that her Imperial Majeſty intends to make a great Promotion of General Officers on New Year's Day, when the important Poſt of Grand Maſter of the Houſhold, vacant by the Death of Field Marſhal Count Konigſegg, will be diſpoſed of. 'Tis ſaid that Count Pallavicini will ſoon lay down his Employment of Governor of the Dutchy of Milan, and that he will be ſucceeded therein by Count Caunitz Rittberg. On the 6th Inſtant a Fire broke out in the Spaniſh Hoſpital, which burnt down the greateſt Part of that large Edifice. And this Morning a Fire broke out in one of our Magazines, by the blowing up of which, and the burſting of ſome Bombs that were charged, ſeveral Perſons were killed and wounded, and many Houſes adjoining were greatly damaged.

Dreſden, Dec. 18. Their Poliſh Majeſties, who ſet out from Warſaw the 11th Inſtant, accompanied by the Princes Xavier and Charles, arrived here on Saturday Night laſt in perfect Health, having reſted the preceding Night at the Seat of Count Bruhl at Pforten; ſince which moſt of the Foreign Miniſters, who attended the Court, are alſo arrived from Warſaw. The Princeſs Royal, who a few Days ago was pretty much indiſpoſed, is now much better. We learn by an Expreſs from Weymar, that the Princeſs Guillelmina Auguſta, eldeſt Daughter of the late Prince Erneſt Auguſtus of Saxe Weymar, died there on the 8th Inſtant, after a tedious Illneſs, in the 36th Year of her Age.

Bruſſels, Dec. 18. On Tueſday laſt, being the Birth Day of Prince Charles of Lorrain, our Governor General, who then entred into the 41ſt Year of his Age, the ſame was celebrated with great Magnificence, all the Nobility, Foreign Miniſters, and other Perſons of Diſtinction, appearing at Court in their richeſt Habits, to compliment his Serene Highneſs on that Occaſion.

Manheim, Dec. 20. Laſt Monday Morning the Elector of Bavaria ſet out from hence on his Return to Munich.

Berlin, Dec. 20. The Diverſions of the preſent Carnival are very brilliant, not only on Account of the ſeveral Foreign Nobility who are arrived here to partake of them, but alſo by the King's honouring them with his Preſence. M. Mylius, Counſellor of War and Juſtice, having obtained Leave to reſign his Employment of Auditor General, with the Allowance of a conſiderable Penſion, his Majeſty has conferred the ſame on M. Pawlowsky. The Sugar Refiners eſtabliſhed in this Country, having met with great Encouragement, ſeveral private Perſons are going to ſet up that Art. In the Night between the 14th and 15th Inſtant, we had as violent a Storm of Wind as has been known for a long Time paſt, by which the Inhabitants of this City have ſuffered very much. We have received received an Account, that Prince Frederick Adolphus of Mecklenbourg-Strelitz, died at Strelitz, on the 11th Inſtant, of an Apoplectick Fit, in the 67th Year of his Age; and dying without Iſſue, the Succeſſion to the Dutchies of Mecklenbourg and Strelitz, devolves on the young Duke of Mecklenbourg-Mirow, who is but 15 Years of Age.

Hague, Dec. 26. The Repairs that have been making in ſome of the Apartments at Court being finiſhed, it is expected her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Governante will ſoon leave the Houſe in the Wood, and come to reſide here for the Winter. 'Tis ſaid the State of War for the Year 1753, will be carried this Week to the Aſſembly of their High Mightineſſes. This Afternoon her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Governante took her Seat for the firſt Time in the Council of State, without any Ceremony; from whence ſhe repaired to the College of the Committee of Council of Holland and Weſtfrizeland, and having taken her Place, and heard ſome Debates, ſhe went to the Aſſembly of our Lords the States of this Province, to whom ſhe made a ſhort Speech; and laſtly her Royal Highneſs repaired to the Aſſembly of the States General, where ſhe likewiſe took her Seat, and aſſiſted for ſome Time at their Deliberations. Her Royal Highneſs was conducted to the ſeveral Colleges by the Baron de Burmania, Grand Marſhal of the Court, General Groveſtines, Maſter of the Horſe, and the Baron de Voight, Chamberlain of the Houſhold. A Plan for the Reform of our Troops was laid before the Aſſembly of the States General, by Order of the Princeſs Governante, the ſame Day, and met with their Approbation, by which a Reduction of 42 Men is to be made in the Body Guards, 224 in the Foot Guards, and 352 in the Swiſs Guards. The States General have received Advice from Captain Hoogſtraten, Commander of the Raven Man of War, that the ſaid Captain ſailed from Gibraltar on the 18th of laſt Month, and arrived the next Day at Tetuan, where he was received with great Marks of Diſtinction; and after ſome Conferences with the Deputies of the Emperor of Morocco, a Treaty of Peace and Friendſhip was agreed on between the Emperor their Maſter and the States General, which was to be ſigned the 21ſt of that Month. And that he had likewiſe, by the ſaid Treaty, agreed for the Redemption of Captain Steenis, and the other Dutch Slaves, who were accordingly all ſent on board his Ship.
